- Other ways to get involved with the PCDC online:
  - Register an account on the INSTRuCT Data Commons
  - Register an account on the INRG Data Commons
- Useful research articles
  - INSTRuCT cohort discovery tool now available
  - INSTRuCT have launched their cohort discovery tool, enabling researchers to query and explore the clinical data for rhabdomyosarcoma data in the INSTRuCT Data Commons.
- New data commons publication in Seminars in Oncology
  - In a new publication in Seminars in Oncology, PCDC Director Sam Volchenboum and coauthors Ajay Major, MD, MBA, and Suzanne Cox, PhD, MPH, discuss the uses of big data in pediatric oncology, with a focus on the Pediatric Cancer Data Commons. A key finding is that the use of big data improves patient care by providing real-time analytics to develop new treatments and improve outcomes for children with cancer.
